PANTZERS TO ATTEND MANSFIELD DINNER

MISSOULA--

University of Montana President Robert T. Pantzer and his wife will fly to Washington D.C. Thursday (Aug. 24) to attend a testimonial dinner in honor of Senator Mike Mansfield. The dinner will fund the Mansfield Endowment for the UM Mansfield Lectures on International Relations, which commemorates the senator's 25 years of service in Congress.

Senator Everett Dirksen of Illinois will be the principle speaker and Chet Huntley, news commentator for the National Broadcasting Company, will be master of ceremonies.

Approximately 2,000 people are expected to attend the event which will be staged at the Sheraton-Park Hotel in Washington D.C.

Prior to the dinner and cocktail hour guests may view a 24-piece art exhibit which will be shown in a department store. All of the entries were created by Montana artists. Ceramics, sculptures, a collograph, watercolor drawings, ink sketches and oil painting will be exhibited.

The drive to fund the Mansfield Endowment was launched in May. A continuing series of foreign affairs lectures in honor of Montana's senior senator will be inaugurated after January 1968.

The lectures will bring eminent foreign affairs authorities to the University for public lectures and student seminars and discussions.

Members of the Endowment's Founding Committee are Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, Mrs. John F. Kennedy, Governor Tim Babcock and UM President Pantzer.
